

Information concerning the announced national strike in Belgium on Sunday/Monday 29/30 January 2012

(Sunday evening 22 hours until Monday evening 22 hours)

Jetairfly is anticipating the possible consequences of the announced national strike in Belgium :

- The closure – during the national strike – of Charleroi Airport has been confirmed. We operate to and from Brussels.
- We have worked out a backup-plan to ensure that we can execute our flights for our passengers, even if an other Belgian airport and/or Belgian air space is/are closed. See the new flight plan below.
- Passengers for the flights mentioned below, have to be in the indicated airport, at the time indicated below. Coaches will bring them to the alternative airports. Passengers cannot present themselves in the alternative airports.
- We have exceptionally advanced rendez-vous times, in order to reduce risks about the accessibility of airports.
- Please note that these exceptional circumstances may cause possible delays. Even if these occur due to circumstances beyond our control, we apologize for any inconvenience.
- With this alternative flight schedule, we aim to ensure that our passengers can – also in these exceptional circumstances – can fly to and from their destination. Have a good flight !
